TO THE PATRONAGE OF

A liberal and enlightened Community

IS SUBMITTED

THE PROSPECTUS

OF

A New Daily Paper,

TO BE PUBLISHED UNDER THE TITLE OF

THE OBSERVER,

AND

Daily Repository of useful Information.

IT will doubtless be deemed a hazardous undertaking to present to the public eye proposals for a new Gazette, when so many are already in possession of the public patronage.

News-papers so much more generally diffused throughout America than perhaps any other portion of the globe, may become either engines of mischief or the implements of usefulness—they disseminate good, or scatter poison, among thousands; and although it may be presumptuous in the Editor of that now proposed to expect that its utility will be great, yet he may be admitted to declare, that it shall not willingly be made the means of doing evil.

His endeavors will be applied to render The Observer in some degree conducive to the attainment of knowledge as well as to the communication of news—to enlighten the understanding—to improve the morals—to beget, or to confirm, a reverence for the sacred principles of Christianity.

For this purpose it is intended—

To furnish the most recent foreign and domestic intelligence;
To give useful Prices Current at home and abroad, and other commercial information;
To select from literary productions such portions as may gratify taste and induce improvement;
To unfold and enforce sound and just views of government:
To aid the great interests of piety and morality.

To present occasionally—

Improvements in the arts and sciences—in agriculture and domestic economy;
Proceedings of the General and State Legislatures;
Reports of the Heads of Departments, and of interesting cases adjudged in the several courts of the United States, &c.
Reviews of foreign and domestic literature;
Anecdotes and characters of distinguished personages;
Statistical tables;
Meteorological observations;
Appointments;
Marriages, Births, Deaths.

With these proposals the subscriber diffidently submits himself to the public. He is well aware of the importance and magnitude of the undertaking Solicitous for the fate of his native land, and viewing with anxious fears and hopes the success of a government created by the joint exertions of wisdom and virtue, and conducted with sound policy and genuine patriotism, he feels himself sincerely interested in promoting such measures and principles as he believes essential to public happiness and national prosperity.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Observer shall be printed with a neat type, and on paper of equal size and quality with the present Philadelphia daily papers.

II. It shall be published every evening, and regularly sent to the houses of the city subscribers—To others it will be forwarded according to their respective instructions.

III. The price will be Eight Dollars per annum to those who reside in the city—and Nine Dollars to all others. The additional dollar is to defray the expence of enclosing and directing their papers.

IV. One half of the price to be paid at the time of subscribing, and the other half at the expiration of twelve months from the publication of the first number. The succeeding payments to be half yearly.

V. Advertisements that do not exceed in length the breadth of the column will be 67 cents for the first, and 33 cents for every additional insertion. Those of greater length will be charged in the same proportion.

Law of the United States.

By Authority.

Fifth Congress of the United States.

At the Third Session, begun and held at the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, on Monday, the third of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

AN ACT,

For the better organizing of the Troops of the United States, and for other purposes.

Section 1.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the troops heretofore authorized, and which hereafter may be authorized to be raised, shall be composed and organized as follows, to wit: A regiment of infantry shall consist of one lieutenant-colonel commandant, two majors, first and second, one adjutant, one quarter-master, and one pay-master, each being a lieutenant, one surgeon, and two surgeon's mates, ten captains, ten first and ten second lieutenants, besides the three lieutenants before-mentioned, ten cadets, two serjeant-majors, two quarter-master serjeants, two chief musicians, first and second, twenty other musicians, forty serjeants, forty corporals, and nine hundred and twenty privates, which, together, shall form two battalions, each battalion of five companies: A regiment of cavalry shall consist of one lieutenant-colonel commandant, two majors, a first and second, one adjutant one quarter-master, and one pay-master, each being a lieutenant; one surgeon, and two surgeon's mates, ten captains, ten first and ten second lieutenants, besides the three lieutenants before mentioned, ten cadets, two serjeant-majors, two quarter-master serjeants, two chief musicians, first and second, ten other musicians, forty serjeants, forty corporals, and nine hundred and twenty privates, including ten sadlers, ten blacksmiths, and ten boot makers; which, together, shall form five squadrons, each squadron of two companies: A regiment of artillery shall consist of one lieutenant-colonel commandant, four majors, one adjutant, one quarter-master, and one pay-master, each being a lieutenant, one surgeon, and two surgeon's mates, sixteen captains, thirty-two lieutenants, besides the three lieutenants before mentioned, thirty-two cadets, four serjeant-majors, four quarter-master serjeants, sixty-four serjeants, sixty-four corporals, one chief musician, ten other musicians, eight hundred and ninety-six privates, including one hundred and twenty-eight artificers, which together shall form four battalions, each battalion of four companies. Provided always, that the number of privates raised and to be raised for the regiment of cavalry and the regiments of infantry heretofore authorized, shall not exceed the number respectively for which provision hath been heretofore made by law; nor shall the battalion of riflemen, nor the two additional troops of cavalry authorized by this act, be raised, until further provision shall be so made, unless war shall break out between the United States and some European Prince, Potentate or State, in which case it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, at his discretion, to cause the said regiments or any of them, to be severally completed to their full establishment.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That every ensign and cornet in the regiments heretofore appointed shall be denominated hereafter second lieutenants.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates hereinafter mentioned, who now are or at any time hereafter may be in the actual service of the United States, shall be entitled to, and shall receive the following compensations, to wit: a major-general one hundred and sixty-six dollars per month and fifteen rations of provisions per day, or an equivalent in money, and when forage shall not be furnished by the United States, the further sum of twenty dollars per month. A brigadier general, one hundred and four dollars per month, twelve rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and sixteen dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A lieutenant-colonel commandant, seventy-five dollars per month, six rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and twelve dollars for forage, when not furnished as aforesaid. A major of artillery or cavalry, each fifty-five dollars per month, four rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and ten dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A major of infantry fifty dollars per month, four rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and ten dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A captain of cavalry forty dollars per month, three rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and eight dollars per month for forage, when not furnished as aforesaid. A captain of artillery and infantry forty dollars per month and three rations per day, or an equivalent in money. A first lieutenant of cavalry thirty dollars per month, two rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and six dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. Lieutenants of artillery each thirty dollars per month, and two rations per day, or an equivalent in money. A second lieut. of cavalry twenty five dollars per month, two rations per day or an equivalent in money, and six dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A first lieutenant of infantry thirty dollars per month and two rations per day or an equivalent in money. A second lieutenant of infantry twenty-five dollars per month and two rations per pay, or an equivalent in money. A regimental surgeon forty-five dollars per month, three rations per day or an equivalent in money, and ten dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A surgeon's mate thirty dollars per month, two rations per day or an equivalent in money, and six dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. A regimental paymaster, quarter-master and adjutant, in addition to their pay in the line, each ten dollars, and six dollars per month for forage, when not furnished as aforesaid. A cadet of cavalry ten dollars per month, two rations per day, or an equivalent in money, and six dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid. All other cadets ten dollars per month and two rations per day, or an equivalent in money. A serjeant-major and a quartermaster serjeant each ten dollars per month. A chief musician eight dollars per month. A serjeant eight dollars per month. A corporal seven dollars per month. A musician six dollars per month. An artificer to the infantry and artillery, a farrier, sadler and boot-maker to the dragoons, each ten dollars per month. A private soldier five dollars per month, and to each of the said non-commissioned officers and privates one ration of provisions per day.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all non-commissioned officers, artificers, privates and musicians, who are and who shall be enlisted, and the non-commissioned officers, artificers, privates and musicians of the militia or other corps, who at any time may be in the actual service of the United States, shall be, and they are hereby exempted during their term of service, from all personal arrests, for any debt or contract. And whenever any non-commissioned officer, artificer, private or musician shall be arrested whether by mesne process, or in execution, contrary to the intent hereof, it shall be the duty of the judge of the district court of the United States and of any court or judge of a state, who by the laws of such state, are authorised to issue writs of habeas corpus, respectively, on application by an officer, to grant a writ of habeas corpus returnable before himself: and upon due hearing and examination in a summary manner, to discharge the non-commissioned officer, artificer, private or musician from such arrest, taking common bail, if required, in any case upon mesne process, and commit him to the applicant, or some other officer of the same corps.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That each non-commissioned officer, private, artificer and musician, who shall hereafter be enlisted for the army of the United States shall be able bodied, and of a size and age suitable for the public service, according to the directions which the President of the United States shall and may establish; and shall be entitled to a bounty of twelve dollars: but the payment of four dollars thereof shall be deferred until he shall have joined the army: And each commissioned officer, who shall be employed in the recruiting service, shall be entitled to receive, for each such non-commissioned officer and private and artificer, and for each sufficient musician duly enlisted and mustered, the sum of two dollars, the same being in full compensation for his extra expences in the execution of this service.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That when any officer shall be detached from a regiment to serve as an aid to a general officer, or as assistant or other inspector, or as an assistant to the quartermaster-general, by whatsoever name, or as an assistant to the adjutant general, by whatsoever name, the place of such officer in his regiment shall be supplied by promotion or new appointment, or both, as may be requisite; but the officer detached shall nevertheless retain his station in his regiment, and shall rank and rise therein, in the same manner as if he had not been detached.

Sec. 7 And be it further enacted, That no officer shall be appointed as the inspector of a division, who, when appointed, shall be of a rank higher than that of major, or as the inspector of a brigade, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than that of captain, or as the aid of a major general, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than that of captain, or as the aid of a brigadier general, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than that of first lieutenant, or as the quarter master of a division, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than that of captain, or as the quarter master of a brigade, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than that of first lieutenant, or as an assistant to the adjutant general, who when appointed shall be of a rank higher than of a captain.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That in the ordinary arrangement of the army, two regiments of infantry or cavalry shall constitute a brigade, and shall be commanded by a brigadier general; two brigades, a division, and shall be commanded by a major general. Provided always, That it shall be in the discretion of the commanding general to vary this disposition, whenever he shall judge it proper; and provided also, that this act shall not render it necessary to appoint any greater number of general officers than have been heretofore authorized by law, sooner than in the opinion of the President, the military service of the United States shall require it.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That a commander of the army of the United States shall be appointed and commissioned by the style of "General of the Armies of the United States," and the present office and title of Lieutenant General shall thereafter be abolished.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That there shall be a Quartermaster General of the army of the United States, who shall be entitled to the rank, pay, emoluments and privileges of a major general.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, at his discretion, to organize, officer, and raise a battalion of riflemen, to consist of the same number of officers and men, and to be entitled to the same pay and emoluments whatsoever as a battalion of infantry of the line.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That to any army of the United States, other than that in which the quartermaster general shall serve, there shall be a deputy quartermaster general, who shall be a field officer, and who, in addition to his other emoluments, shall be entitled to fifty dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences, but the provisions of this act are not to affect the present quartermaster general of the army of the United States, who in case a quartermaster general shall be appointed by virtue of this act, is to act as deputy quarter master general, and shall hereafter have the rank of lieutenant colonel; and that to every division of an army, there shall be a division quartermaster, who, in addition to his other emoluments, shall be entitled to thirty dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences; and that to every brigade there shall be a brigade quartermaster, who, in addition to his other emoluments shall be entitled to twenty four dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences; each of which officers shall be chosen by the quartermaster general, from among the regimental officers.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That to any army of the United States, other than that in which the inspector general shall serve, there shall be a deputy inspector general, who shall be a field officer, and who, in addition to his other emoluments, shall be entitled to fifty dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences; and that to every division of an army there shall be a division inspector, who, in addition to his other emoluments, shall be entitled to thirty dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences; and that to every brigade there shall be a brigade inspector, who in addition to his other emoluments, shall be entitled to twenty four dollars per month, which shall be in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences: each of which officers shall be chosen by the inspector general from among the regimental officers.—The deputy inspector general to be in every case approved by the general commanding the army to which he shall be annexed.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That the adjutant-general of the army shall be ex-officio assistant inspector-general, and that every deputy inspector general shall be ex-officio deputy adjutant-general, and shall perform the duties of adjutant-general in the army to which he shall be annexed.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That the paymaster general of the armies of the United States, shall always quarter at or near the head quarters of the main army, or at such place as the commander in chief shall deem proper? and that to the army on the western frontiers and to detachments from the main army intended to act separately for a time, he shall appoint deputy paymasters, who shall account to him for the money advanced to them, and shall each give a bond in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties for the faithful discharge of their duties respectively, and take an oath faithfully to execute the duties of their offices, and the several regimental paymasters shall also give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars with one or more sufficient sureties, and take an oath as aforesaid for the faithful discharge of the duties of their offices respectively; and that the paymaster general shall receive eighty dollars per month with the rations and forage of a major in full compensation for his services and travelling expences; and the deputy, in addition to his pay and other emoluments, thirty dollars per month in full compensation for his extra services and travelling expences.

Sec. 16. And be it further enacted, That every major general of the army of the United States shall be entitled to two aids to be chosen by himself, each of whom, in addition to his pay and other emoluments in his regiment, shall receive twenty four dollars per month, and ten dollars per month for forage, when not furnished as aforesaid; and that every brigadier general of the said army shall be entitled to one aid to be chosen by himself, who, in addition to his pay and other emoluments in his regiment, shall receive twenty four dollars per month, and ten dollars per month for forage when not furnished as aforesaid.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be authorized to engage and appoint, distinct from the officers of the corps of artillerists and engineers, two engineers with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and to stipulate and allow to them respectively, such compensations as he shall find necessary and expedient.

Sec. 18. And be it further enacted, That an inspector of fortifications shall be appointed, whose duties shall be assigned him by the Secretary of War under the direction of the President of the United States, that the compensation to be allowed to the said inspector, if selected from the corps of artillerists and engineers, in full for his extra services and travelling expences, shall besides his pay and emoluments in the corps, be thirty-five dollars per month, and if he shall not be an officer in the artillery or army, he shall in full compensation for his services and expences be allowed the sum of seventy-five dollars monthly, and be entitled to the rank of major in the army of the United States, and in case the said inspector shall be chosen from the corps of artillerists and engineers or army of the United States, his place therein shall be supplied by promotion or a new appointment or both, as may be requisite; but he shall nevertheless retain his station in the said corps or army, and shall rank and rise therein, in the same manner as if he had never been appointed to the said office of inspector.

Sec. 19. And be it further enacted, That a ration of provisions shall henceforth consist of eighteen ounces of bread or flour, or when neither can be obtained, of one quart of rice or one and an half pound of sifted or boulted indian meal, one pound and a quarter of fresh beef, or one pound of salted beef, or three quarters of a pound of salted pork, and when fresh meat is issued, salt at the rate of two quarts for every hundred rations, soap at the rate of four pounds, and candles at the rate of a pound and a half for every hundred rations. Provided always, that there shall be no diminution of the ration to which any of the troops now in service may be entitled by the terms of their enlistment.

Sec. 20 And be it further enacted, That every non-commissioned officer, private, artificer, and musician of the artillery and infantry, shall receive annually, the following articles of uniform cloathing, to wit: one hat, one coat, one vest, two pair of woollen and two pair of linen overalls, four pair of shoes, four shirts, four pair of socks, one blanket, one stock and clasp, and one pair of buckles.

Sec. 21. And be it further enacted, That suitable cloathing be provided for the dragoons, adapted to the nature of the service, and conformed as near as may be to the value of the cloathing allowed to the infantry and artillery.

Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the commander in chief of the army, or the commanding officer of any separate detachment or garrison thereof, at his discretion, to cause to be issued, from time to time to the troops under his command out of such supplies as shall have been provided for the purpose, rum, whiskey, or other ardent spirits in quantities not exceeding half a gill to each man per day, excepting in cases of fatigue service, or other extraordinary occasions, and that whensoever supplies thereof shall be on hand, there shall be issued to the troops vinegar at the rate of two quarts for every hundred rations.

Sec. 23. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the commanding officer of each regiment, whenever it may be necessary, to cause the coats, vests and overalls or breeches, which may from time to time be issued to and for his regiment, to be altered and new made, so as the better to fit them to the persons respectively, for whose use they shall be delivered; and for defraying the expence of such alteration, to cause to be deducted and applied out of the pay of such persons a sum or sums not exceeding twent-five cents for each coat, eight cents for each vest, and for each pair of overalls or breeches.

Sec. 24. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the secretary of war, to cause to be provided in each and every year, all clothing, camp utensils and equipage, medicines and hospital stores, necessary for the troops and armies of the United States for the succeeding year, and for this purpose to make purchases, and enter, or cause to be entered into, all necessary contracts or obligations for effecting the same.

Sec. 25. And be it further enacted, That whenever any officer or soldier shall be discharged from the service, except by way of punishment for an offence, he shall be allowed his pay and rations, or an equivalent in money, for such term of time, as shall be sufficient to travel from the place where he receives his discharge to the place of his residence, computing at the rate of twenty miles to a day.

Sec. 26. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed to the inspector-general, in addition to his allowance as major-general, and in full compensation for extra services and expences in the execution of his office the sum of fifty dollars per month, and that he shall be allowed a secretary to be appointed by himself with the pay and emoluments of a captain.

WATER-OFFICE.

Centre Square, Febeuary 5, 1800.

IN compliance with the instructions of the Committee for watering the city, and with my own inclinations, every possible admittance and information has been given to those citizens who have visited the Works during their progress. The Engines are now arrived, and are immediately to be put up, and it is hoped that it will be thought reasonable and just, both to the Public, and to the Contractor for the Engines, that the workmen should not be interrupted. As a very few months will fully gratify the curiosity of the citizens, by shewing them the Engines in full operation, a temporary exclusion of all visitors from the Engine houses cannot appear improper.

QUESTIONS

To Merchants, Store keepers, and Tradesmen in general, &c.

1st, PRAY Gentlemen, is a perfect standard of discount, or interest, calculated on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, from one day to sixty-four days inclusive, of any value, whether used as a standard, or as a check upon the enquirers' own calculations

2d Is it of any importance to know the best methods of computing the exchanges, between this country and the principal maritime trading place in Russia, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Prussia, Poland, Germany, Holland, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, Italy, in several of the Windward and Leeward West India Islands, and many ports in the East Indies?

3d Is a table of all the coins and monies of account in the places aforesaid, of any use?

4th Are the coins and monies of account in the aforesaid places, when reduced to dollars and cents, of any service?

5th Is a table of compound interest of any utility?

6th Is the table by which the banks determine the value of gold, desirable?

7th Is the amount of Interest, accurately calculated for each month from one to twelve months, and on every dollar (without exception) from 1 to 2000, of any value?

8th Is a table of all the post towns in the United States, and rates of postage therewith, of any use?

9th Will not all these together make a book, as generally useful and convenient as ever entered a counting house or store?

10th Will not the whole, when comprised in a quarto volume of from 200 to 225 pages, be worth two dollars?

And lastly, Is the person, who at the expence of FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS undertakes to perform upwards of one hundred and sixty thousand calculations of Interest, and of giving all the preceding information to the public in the most complete manner, deserving of your Encouragement and Support?

If the answer is in the affirmative, you are individually and respectfully invited to subscribe in one of the specimen books, exhibited at the City Tavern, Hardy's Hotel, Francis's Hotel, the Indian Queen, Dunwoody's Tavern, the Franklin Head, and at the George.

It is proper to state, that the work will not be executed unless fifteen hundred subscribers are obtained? for four thousand dollars is too much to hazard.

NOTHING IS TO BE PAID IN ADVANCE, neither will it be expected of subscribers to take the work when published, if it is not delivered rigorously conformable to my agreements with the public, expressed in the conditions affixed to the specimen books, each of which consists of six detached pages of the work.

I am, with respect,
Gentlemen,
Your humble servant.
JOHN ROWLETT,
Accomptant, Bank of North America.

POSTSCRIPT.

The work is dedicated, by permission, to the President and Directors of the Bank of North America, and has already received the patronage of JOHN ADAMS, President of the United States; of THOMAS JEFFERSON, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate; of a large number of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the United States; and of the Presidents and Directors of the different Banks unanimously. The Specimen Book in the Bank of North America, is filling very fast with subscriptions, some for 2 copies, some for 3 copies, and some for 5 copies, and I take this opportunity of gratefully acknowledging all favours.

‡*‡ Gentlemen having business at either of the Banks may subscribe there as well as at the Taverns, &c. already mentioned.

Eighty Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from the Subscriber, at Newtown, Chester Ferry, Queen Anne's county, state of Maryland, the following negroes, viz. a woman named Nanny, went away on the 22d January, 1799, and took with her a Mulatto female child, about two years old, named Arianna. Nanny is a dark yellow negro, about five feet four or five inches high, remarkably handsome for a negro. Her cloathing unknown as she took a variety of good cloaths with her—she went off with a negro fellow, named Peter, and calls himself Peter Simpson, he is the property of a certain William Bowers of Talbot county, state as above, who has advertised one hundred dollars reward for him. Peter is a stout well made yellow fellow, about 6 feet one inch high, is a tolerable good Carpenter. Nanny passes for his wife, but her real husband is named Bob, who belongs to her master. It is probable they are in the neighbourhood of Salem in the Jerseis, as they were there in October last, and by information, Peter had built himself an house to live in, between Rum Bridge and Gold Town; it is likely they may have changed their names and may have passes, as Peter can write a middling hand; it is probable Nanny has another child, as it was thought she was in a pregnant state when she went away.

The noted Ferry-man Charles, who calls himself Charles Rodney; he went off on the 18th of February last, he is a dark mulatto, about five feet eight or nine inches high, about forty years old, stoops in his shoulders when he walks, a scar on his head very perceivable—he took with him a small bay mare about 4 or 5 years years old, her mane trimmed and bob tail'd; his cloathing unknown, as he carried off a variety of clozths; it is probable he has changed his name, as he is a very artful, sensible fellow, he can read tolerably well; it is likely he may hire himself to drive a wrggon, being well acquainted with that business, driving for the army during the war; he also perhaps may have a pass.

The above reward will be given for the aforesaid two negroes, viz. Nanny and Charles, if taken out of the state, or twenty dollars for Nanny and child, if taken in this state, & 20 do. Charles if taken in this state and secured in jail, so as I may get them again. If brought home all reasonable charges shall be paid by me.

"For the accommodation of citizens wiſhing for Summer Retreats from the Fever," an accommodating gentleman advertiſes, not to give, but to ſell, lots on the river. It is ſome merit, however, even to ſell, from the benevolent deſire of accommodating the public.

In the Aurora, we obſerve an advertiſement of "Slender's Letters." We are ignorant of the Letters of Slender, but they come to us in ſo queſtionable ſhape, that it is ſuggeſted whether by antitheſis, they might not more aptly be entitled, Letters of SLANDER.

We have been ſo long without news, that hungry quidnuncs, having eked out their laſt iota of patience, do incontinently ſet themſelves about fabricating "murders moſt foul, and moſt unnatural."

A Bookſeller who has in repeated inſtances deſerved well of the Republic of Letters, by him luminous and correct editions, of uſeful and orthodox works, is engaged in reprinting, in this enlightened and liberal metropolis, that great production, THE PURSUITS OF LITERATURE. A work more apt, and more adequate to correcting times like the preſent, will in vain be ſought in the rounds of modern literature. Mr. Matthias (the imputed author) may with propriety be ſtyled the literary Hector of the Age; for he poſſeſſes all the patriotic fire and ardent courage and heroic fortitude of that immortal chieftain. We venture to predict he will never find an Achilles, in theſe latter times. Of Republicans and their ſyſtems, it is true, he entertains an ineffable contempt. But with liberal minds this can ſurely be no obſtacle to the circulation of his works. Our Republicaniſm is an Athos which can never be digged through. Of this work, it is remarked by an acute and ingenious Engliſh writer (the author of "the Unſexed Females,") that "many, whoſe politics, and even religion, had been long wavering, are now fixed in their principles by "The Purſuits of Literature."

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, March 13.

Mr. Nicholas made a motion, that it be Reſolved, by the Senate and Houſe of Repreſentatives of the United States, two thirds of both houſes concurring, That the following articles be propoſed to the Legiſlatures of the ſeveral States, as amendments to the conſtitution of the United States.

That, After the third of march in the year one thouſand eight hundred and one, the choice of Electors of Preſident and Vice Preſident ſhall be made by dividing each State into a number of diſtricts equal to the number of electors to be choſen in ſuch State, and by the perſons in each of thoſe diſtricts who ſhall have the qualifications requiſite for electors of the moſt numerous branch of the Legiſlature of ſuch State chuſing one elector in the manner in which the Legiſlature thereof ſhall preſcribe.

That the election of Repreſentatives to Congreſs, who are to ſerve after the third day of March, in the year one thouſand eight hundred and three, ſhall be by dividing each State into a number of diſtricts equal to the number of repreſentatives to which ſuch State ſhall be entitled, and by the people within each of thoſe diſtricts who ſhall have the qualifications requiſite for electors of the moſt numerous branch of the legiſlature of ſuch State chuſing one repreſentative in the manner which the legiſlature thereof ſhall preſcribe.

Ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. D. Foſter, from the Committee of Claims, made a report on the petition of Beriah Norton, agent for the inhabitants of Marthas Vineyard, who requeſted that Congreſs would grant him aſſiſtance to purſue a claim for ſupplies furniſhed to the Britiſh Government during the revolutionary war—The report ſtates, that if any aid from the Department of State be requiſite and proper to be afforded, there can be no doubt, on making application it would be extended—but that it would not be expedient for Congreſs to make a grant of money to proſecute a private claim of this nature.

On motion of Mr. Waln, a petition of ſundry merchants and traders of the city of Philadelphia, relative to the piers in the river Delaware, preſented at the laſt ſeſſion, was referred to the Committee of Commerce and Manufactures.

Mr. Claiborne, from the Select Committee to whom was recommitted the petition of Cato Weſt and others, of the Miſſiſippi territory, together with ſundry revolutions, abridging the power of the governor of that territory—made report that it would be inexpedient to adopt the ſaid reſolutions.

The report was read a firſt and ſecond time and committed for to-morrow.

Mr. Griſwold, from the Committee of Reviſal and unfiniſhed buſineſs, reported a bill providing the means of intercourſe between the United States and foreign nations, which was read a firſt and ſecond time and committed for to-morrow.

Mr. G. from the ſaid committee, to whom was referred the amendments of the Senate to the bill declaring the aſſent of Congreſs to certain acts of the States of Maryland and Georgia, reported that it would be proper the houſe concur.

The report was agreed to.

Mr. Marſhall preſented a petition of William Tazewell, Secretary to Mr. Gerry, while envoy at Paris, praying that the Secretary of ſtate may be authoriſed to liquidate and ſettle his account for travelling expenſes from Paris to Holland and London, in an official capacity—and for ſundry articles plundered from him while on his paſſage to this country, having been captured and carried into Spain.

Referred to a ſelect committee.

Mr. M. alſo preſented a petition of Joſeph Abrams, formerly a poſt rider in the State of Virginia, praying to be allowed a balance due him by the old government.

Referred to the poſt maſter General.

Mr. Fowler preſented a petition of Obadiah Scott, of the State of Kentuckey, praying the remiſſion of a duty he was obliged to pay while his ſtill remained unemployed from unavoidable neceſſity.—Referred to the Secretary of the Treaſury.

On motion of Mr. Platt, the petition of John Little, praying to be placed on the penſion liſt, heretofore preſented, was referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. Evans preſented a petition of Robert Yates, repreſenting himſelf to be brother and heir of Bartholomew Yates, deceaſed, may be granted him. Referred to the committee of claims.

The bill for the government of the marine corps, while on ſhore, was, on motion of Mr. Otis re-committed to a ſelect committee.

Mr. H. Lee aſked and obtained leave of abſence for Mr. Page, for three weeks.

A meſſage was received from the Senate, by Mr. Otis their Secretary, informing the houſe, that the Senate had paſſed the bill intituled "An act to allow a drawback of duties on goods exported to New Orleans, and therein to amend the act intituled "an act for regulating the collection of duties on imports and tonnage"—with an amendment, to which they requeſt the concurrence of this houſe.

The houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill for removing any military force of the United States from the places of holding elections—after amending the bill, it was agreed to, and ordered to be engroſſed and read a third time to-morrow.

The houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill to alter the times of holding the diſtrict courts in North Carolina, which was agreed to without amendment, and ordered to be engroſſed and read a third time to-morrow.

The houſe went into committee of the whole on the report of the ſelect committee, appointed to conſider and report on the expediency of amending the judiciary ſyſtem of the North Weſtern Territory; and alſo on the expediency of dividing ſaid territory into two diſtinct and ſeparate governments—when the reſolution reported by the committee, recommending a diviſion of the territory was agreed to. The committee then roſe, and upon the queſtion, will the houſe agree with the committee in their agreement to the ſaid reſolution, a long debate enſued, and the houſe adjourned without taking a queſtion upon it.

CINCINNATI, February 12.

The following is the Anſwer of the Preſident of the United States, to the Addreſs from the Legiſlature of the Territory, received by the Governor by the laſt poſt.

To the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of the Territory North-West of the River Ohio.

GENTLEMEN,

A KIND addreſs has been tranſmitted to me, at your requeſt, by governor St. Clair, and ſubſcribed by Edward Tiffin, ſpeaker of the houſe of repreſentatives, and H. Vander Burgh, preſident of the council, the more agreeable to me as it appears to have been unanimous. I pray you to accept of my ſincere thanks for this pledge of your affection and reſpect. The confidence and approbation of ſo remote a portion of the nation, as it may be ſuppoſed to be impartial, is very precious to me.—Whatever may have been my proſpects in private life; whatever delight I have taken in its purſuits, and whatever inclination I may have always had for its tranquility, I have not declined the invitations of the public to aſſiſt in their councils. If any efforts of mine, in concert with others, of brighter talents and fairer fame, have contributed in any degree, to the enjoyment of the rich country you now inhabit, this conſideration alone ought to be eſteemed by me, as a ſufficient reward for the ſervices of a whole life.

Your ſincere attachment to the conſtitution and government, and your determination to afford every poſſible ſupport to both, do you honor; while your prayers for my life and health deſerve my beſt thanks, and ſincere benedictions to yourſelves and your poſterity. JOHN ADAMS.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18, 1800.

ALEXANDRIA, March 8.

Yeſterday James Miller Elliott was arraigned at the bar, before a court of Enquiry, compoſed of five of the county Magiſtrates, for having knowingly uttered forged bills of the Bank of the United States. After hearing the evidences, both in behalf of the priſoner and on the part of the commonwealth, the attorney for the defendant did not conceive it neceſſary to urge a word in his defence, from the ſatisfactory nature of the teſtimony in his favour; and the court remanded Elliott to priſon, and ordered him for further trial in the Diſtrict Court at Dumfries.

FOR SALE,
A VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND,

LYING on the Potomac River, county of Northumberland, ſtate of Virginia; containing about 1400 acres—its ſituation is equal to any other in the Northern Neck, remarkable for every kind of wild fowl, oyſters, fiſh and crab, and none better for health. It is about the ſame diſtance from Baltimore, Alexandria and Norfolk, and not more than one days ſail from either. There are three improved plantations with dwelling houſes, the one known by the name of Exeter Lodge, formerly the reſidence of col. John Gordon, is an elegant two ſtory brick houſe, with four rooms on a floor, and a paſſage ſixteen feet wide.

The other two are commodious and conveniently fitted, with good and ſuitable out houſes, at one of which John Murphy, Eſq. (now of Weſtmoreland county) lived ſeveral years; on this farm there is a good griſt mill, with water ſufficient to turn any number of ſtones; alſo convenient ſtore houſes and granaries on a public road, well ſituated for a country ſtore. On each of thoſe places there are fine apple and peach orchards. The greater proportion of the land is of the firſt quality, and near the half of the whole heavily timbered. The terms may be known by applying to Wm P. Tebbs Baltimore, Fouſhee G. Tebbs, eſq. of Richmond county, Virginia, or to Thomas Murgatroyd and Sons, Philadelphia.

A SEASONABLE ARTICLE.

JUST RECEIVED,
AND FOR SALE
By WILLIAM Y. BIRCH,
STATIONER,
No. 17 South Second Street,
HAMILTON's ELIXIR,
A SOVEREIGN REMEDY

For Colds, obstinate Coughs, Catarrhs, Asthmas, Sore-throats, and approaching Consumptions.

THOUSANDS are too well acquainted with the nature and effects of empirical medicines daily offered for the cure of the above complaints; dear bought experience has taught them that oily and heating medicines joined with strong opiates (or sleepy drugs) repeated doses of which, flatter and deceive the patient for the present, by procuring momentary ease; experience, I say, has taught thousands that the common opiates and balsams, as they are called, finally aggravate every disorder of the breast and lungs in their most distressing symptoms; that they load the stomach and impair the digestion, inflame the whole system, increase the difficulty of breathing, and excite fever.—But the qualities of this valuable discovery are evinced by perfectly opposite effects. A SINGLE TRIAL WILL PROVE that it restores the determination of the fluids to the surface of the body, and brings on the common, healthful perspiration; that it dissolves and evacuates the tough, viscid phlegm, or mucus, strengthens the weakened vessels of the lungs, sheathes the acrimonious humours which irritate the lungs, and finally discharges them. Thus striking at the root of the disorder, the symptoms are of course, effectually and permanently conquered, the reverse of common medicines, which weaken the constitution and give strength to the disorder, for the sake of moderating for the present, some of its painful effects.

TO PARENTS
Who may have Children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH.

This discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable; the Elixir is so perfectly agreeable and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Dr. HAMILTON's
Genuine Essence and Extract of MUSTARD.

For Rheumatisms, Gout, Palsey, Sprains, &c. a great number of attested cures may be seen at the place of sale. Dr. Hamilton's Grand Restorative for constitutions debilitated by intemperance of any kind; and for the cure of Nervous Complaints, Inward Weakness, Obstinate Gleets, Fluor Albus in women, &c.

Hamilton's justly celebrated Worm Lozenges, the infallible Itch Ointment, Dr. Leroux's Indian Vegetable Specific for Venereal Complaints, Ague and Fever Drops which had never failed effecting a cure, Dr. Hahn's Antibilious Pill, ditto Corn Plaister, the Persian Lotion for the face and skin, Gowland's Lotion, Church's Cough Drops, Anderson's Pills

THE DAMASK LIP SALVE

Is recommended (particularly to the Ladies) as an elegant and pleasant preparation for chopped and sore lips, and every blemish and inconvenience occasioned by colds, fevers, &c. speedily restoring a beautiful rosy colour and delicate softness to the lips.

THE RESTORATIVE POWDER
FOR THE TEETH AND GUMS.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, absorbing all that acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

☞ Those who wish to procure the medicines genuine, must apply ONLY as above.

Wholesale purchasers will receive a liberal allowance by application to LEE & Co. Baltimore, who have obtained the general agency for the United States.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
March 11*th*, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Pursuant to the act of Congress passed on the 1st day of June, one thousand, seven hundred and ninety six, entitled "an act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military services, and for the society of United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathen;" and the act supplementary to the said recited act passed on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine——to wit:

I.

THAT the tract of Land herein after described, namely, "beginning at the North West corner of the seven ranges of townships, and running thence fifty miles due south, along the western boundary of the said ranges;—thence due West to the Main Branch of the Scioto river; thence up the Main Branch of the said river to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the same;—thence along the said boundary line to the Tuscaroras branch of the Muskingum river at the crossing place above Fort Lawrence; thence down the said river, to the point where a line run due west from the place of beginning, will intersect the said river; thence along the line so run to the place of beginning;" has been divided into townships of five miles square, and fractional parts of townships; and that plats and surveys of the said townships and fractional parts of townships are deposited in the offices of the Register of the Treasury and Surveyor General, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

II.

The holders of such warrants as have been or shall be granted for military services performed during the late war, are required to present the same to the Register of the Treasury, at some time prior to the twelfth day of February in the year, one thousand eight hundred, for the purpose of being registered; No registry will however be made of any less quantity than a quarter township, or four thousand acres.

III.

The priority of location of the warrants which may be presented and registered in manner aforesaid, prior to the 12th day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred, will immediately after the said day, be determined by lot, in the mode described by the act first recited.

IV.

The holders of registered warrants, shall on Monday the 17th day of February, in the year 1800, in the order of which the priority of location shall be determined by lot as aforesaid, personally, or by their agents, designate in writing at the office of the Register of the Treasury, the particular quarter townships elected by them respectively, and such of the said holders as shall not designate their locations on the said day, shall be postponed in locating such warrants to all other holders of registered warrants.

V.

The holders of warrants for military services sufficient to cover one or more quarter townships or tracts of four thousand acres each; shall, at any time after Monday the 17th day of February, 1800 and prior to the first day of January, 1802, be allowed to register the said warrants in manner aforesaid, and forthwith to make locations therefor on any tract or tracts of land not before located.

VI.

All warrants or claims for lands on account of military services, which shall not be registered and located before the first day of January, 1802, are by the supplementary act of Congress herein before recited, passed on the second day of March, 1799, declared to be forever barred.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned.

OLIVER WOLCOTT.
Sec. of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
May 29*th*, 1799.

THE proprietors of certificates issued for subscriptions to the Loan bearing interest at eight per centum per annum, are notified, that at any time after payment shall have been made of the 5th instalment, which will become due during the first ten days of the month of July ensuing, Certificates of Funded Stock may at their option be obtained at the Treasury or Loan Offices, respectively, for the amount of the four first instalments, or one moiety of the sums expressed in the subscription certificates:—No certificates of Funded Stock will however be issued for less than one hundred dollars.

Such subscription certificates as may be presented at the Treasury or Loan Offices in consequence of the foregoing arrangement, will be indorsed and distinctly marked so as to denote, that a moety of the stock has been issued.

OLIVER WOLCOTT,
Secretary of the Treasury.

FOR THE CURE OF CORNS.

Infallible German Corn Plaister.

This Plaister (the invention of a German Physician, who administered it in Germany upwards of 30 years with the greatest success) is infallible for the cure of corns. It will effectually eradicate them, root and branch in a short time.

HUMOURS ON THE FACE AND SKIN,

Particularly pimples, blotches, tetters, ringworms, tan, freckles, sun burns, shingles, redness of the nose, neck or arms, and prickly heat,

Are effectually cured by the application of The genuine Vegetable Lotion.

This excellent remedy has been administered by the inventor, for several years while in England, with the greatest success. By the simple application of this fluid for a short time, it will remove the most rancorous and alarming scurvy in the face, which has foiled every other remedy. It possesses all the good qualities of the most celebrated cosmetics, without any of their doubtful effects. He therefore recommends it with confidence to every person so afflicted, as an efficacious and certain cure.

Prepared only by the inventor and sole proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his dispensary, 137 Front street, near the Fly market, New York; and sold by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 south Second street, Philadelphia.

HEAD ACHE.

Persons afflicted with the head ache, proceeding from whatever cause, will find instant relief in the application of Church's Anodyne Essence.

In rheumatic, nervous, and billious head aches its has not its equal. It not only alleviates that tormenting pain, but removes it almost instantaneously. The head ache occasioned by hard drinking, and any local pains in any other parts of the body or extremities, are by application, effectually removed.

[Price 50 cents.]

Prepared only by the inventor and sole proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his dispensary, 137 Front street, near the Fly market, New York; and sold by Messrs. H. and P. Rice, 16 south Second street, Philadelphia.

For Nervous Disorders, Female Complaints, Gout in the Stomach, Melancholy, Seminal Weakness, loss of Appetite, Bilious Disorders, Inward Weaknesses, Indigestion, Obstinate Gleets, Juvenile Indiscretions and Premature Old Age, and every other symptom of extreme debility, which are the consequences of a Dissipated Life—excess of Pleasure or Grief—Heat or change of Climate—Immoderate use of Tea, Spirituous Liquors, or any Intemperance—Bad Lyings-in—Diseases incident to Young Girls and Women at a certain period of life—

The Cordial Restorative Balsam

Is recommended as a Medicine of specific and unparalleled virtues for the immediate relief and speedy and permanent cure of the above disorders, having stood a trial of many successful years, during which period many thousands of both sexes have been restored from the brink of the grave.

This Balsam is particularly adapted to weak female constitutions, as well as to phlegmatic habits in general; it acts powerfully as a nervine, not only to the weak stomach, but to the whole nervous system! corrects a vitiated appetite and digestion in the first passages, and assists wonderfully in recovering the tone of the uriary and genital organs:—Hence its efficacy in the most obstinate seminal gleets in men, and corresponding weaknesses in women; and hence it will contribute more safely, surely and honourably towards conjugal happiness, than any of those irritating, diabolical compositions, which are so shamefully administered to the unwary.

It is earnestly recommended to those ladies, who from repeated and difficult labours are afflicted with weaknesses and infirmities; in which cases it is highly useful, strengthening at the same time the stomach, the back, the weakened organs, and the whole constitution.

Those, who in advanced life, feel the consequences of youthful excess, or unfortunate youth, who have brought on themselves a numerous train of evils, will by the use of this find themselves restored to health and strength, and all the melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

For whether the system has received a shock, and is debilitated from imprudence or inattention in the earliest part of life, or is sinking under the advance of years, a few doses of this medicine will afford immediate assurance of returning health and strength, by giving tone to the muscular system, and organs of digestion, and by renovating the whole constitution.

To the young it will afford lasting health, strength and spirits, in place of lassitude and debility: and to the aged and infirm, it will assuredly furnish great relief and comfort, by gently and safely invigorating the system; but if it be in the power of medicine to gild the autumn of declining years, and calmly and serenely protract the close of life beyond its narrow span, this Restorative is capable of effecting that grand desideratum.

Constitutions relaxed, weak or decayed, in men or women, are under the immediate influence of this Restorative.

Old coughs soon relieved and speedily cured.

Poverty of blood and emaciated limbs, will ere long meet the happiest change; the chill watery fluid become rich and balsamic, and the limbs be covered with flesh, firm and healthful.

It will no doubt be acceptable to the reader, to see accounts of some of the remarkable cases and cures which have been performed by this truly invaluable medicine, in the disorders for which it was invented; he has therefore selected a few of such cases as have come within his own immediate knowledge, which are published and may be had (gratis) at any of the places where the medicine is sold.

Prepared (only) by the Inventor and sole Proprietor, Dr. James Church, at his Dispensary, 137, Front street, near the Fly-market, New-York—and sold by Messrs. H. & P. Rice, 16, South Second Street, Philadelphia.
